Shout about competition 2007
Terms and conditions

1. To enter this competition you must submit a brief description, of your planned Shout about activities (including date and time where known) to shoutabout@foe.co.uk or by post to Shout about competition, Friends of the Earth, 26-28 Underwood Street, London. N1 7JQ.

2. You must provide Friends of the Earth with your name, school or youth group name and address, e-mail address and/or telephone number.

4. Friends of the Earth staff and their relatives may not enter the competition.

5. This competition is open to schools and youth groups in England, Wales and Northern Ireland only that are planning to run activities as part of Friends of the Earth’s Shout about 2007 week (5-9 November).

6. If you are student you must obtain permission from a teacher or youth group leader to enter this competition.

7. Friends of the Earth does not accept any responsibility for entries which fail to be received by us due to the Internet or postal system.

8. Failure to provide accurate contact details may result in your entry being disqualified.

9. Three overall winners will be selected (one in England, one in Wales and one in Northern Ireland) each winning a Friends of the Earth campaigner for a day, to visit their school/youth group during Shout about week and give a talk. Three runner-up prizes of £50 worth of book vouchers to spend in our online shop will be awarded. All winners and runner-ups will be featured in the Friends of the Earth Shout about review magazine.

10. Friends of the Earth reserves the right to cancel this competition without notice.

11. Only one entry per school/youth group.

12. There are no cash alternatives to any of the prizes.

13. Winners will be notified of results either by email or telephone within 7 days of the closing date for the competition.

14. The results of the competition will be announced in the Shout about climate solutions 2007 review magazine due for publication in January 2008.

15. The prize is valid during the Shout about activity week (5-9 November 2007) only.

16. The winners will be selected by a Friends of the Earth internal selection committee after the closing date of the competition. Friends of the Earth's decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into.

17. By participating in this Competition, entrants agree that following its completion, Friends of the Earth is authorized to use the stories on the Friends of the Earth learning website, on any and all other media in connection with the Shout about 2007 activity week.
As a condition of your activity being selected by Friends of the Earth you will be required to: i) provide additional information regarding your school/youth group Shout about activities as requested by Friends of the Earth, including but not limited to quotes from teachers and students that can be used in conjunction with the story; ii) allow a professional photographer to attend the school/youth group activity and take photographs of your Shout about activity; iii) provide consent* for the photographs to be used on the Friends of the Earth learning website, on any and all other media in connection with the Shout about 2007 activity week.

*Where students are under 14 years of age, consent must be provided by a parent or guardian.

18. This competition is run by Friends of the Earth England, Wales and Northern Ireland. Friends of the Earth is a collective name for Friends of the Earth Trust, registered charity 281681, company number 1533942, and Friends of the Earth Limited, company number 1012357, both of which may use the above information. In both cases the registered office is at 26-28 Underwood Street, London N1 7JQ

19. Entry to this competition means that you have accepted these terms and conditions and have agreed to be bound by them. This competition is governed by the laws of the United Kingdom.